SOLDIERS GO ON BALL PLAYING TOUR

Thirteen Members of 22d Infantry Visit New Mexico Towns.

Deming, N. M., July 31.—Thirteen members of the 22d infantry passed through here en route to Silver City, Hurley, El Bayard and Santa Rita where they will play base ball with the teams of these respective places. They will return here Friday and play the Deming team.

R. E. Hardaway has brought in a splendid irrigation well one and a half miles directly north of town, and just across the Mimbres. From 35 to 75 feet the drillers encountered good water bearing material, it being coarse gravel. Mr. Hardaway will soon install a pumping plant in this well, and will reclaim a considerable acreage with the same.

Mr. Baird, of Fresno, Calif., is visiting George Solana, and contemplating locating here.

Arthur Rathel and wife have returned from several weeks' outing in California.

George D. Coon, formerly of Pecos, Texas, is here to begin his movements upon his land near Honda.

J. W. and D. E. Parker, of Albuquerque, are here on business.

A. E. Snyder and Miss Elizabeth Skillen were married at the courthouse by Justice L. L. Browning. Mr. Snyder is in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad.

MRS. McCUTCHEON, OF FT. DAVIS, IS DEAD

Fort Davis, Texas, July 31.—Mrs. Ben McCutcheon died at 11:30 p. m., July 28, with hemorrhage of the lungs. She took sick about the first of January with pneumonia, and had never been well since. She was an estimable woman in every respect, having been a devoted Christian, a member of the Methodist church. She had resided in this country since a child being 25 years old. A husband, four children, father and sister survive. Her death was a great loss to her family.

Misses Grace Stewart and Marian Helm are spending a few days at the point of Rock ranch, visiting W. T. Jones' family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and children with Mr. Mulholland, went to Marfa to visit relatives.

Thirty-five teachers from the Alpine normal spent one day in Fort Davis this week.

C. E. Cooring, of Valentine, is spending a few days here this week.

Rev. J. J. Mauney, of Marfa, held services here Sunday.

S. A. Thompson is in Marfa to attend the Masonic lodge.

C. W. Miller has finished his dwelling which is almost finished. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family of Waco, Texas, are here. Mr. Jones is a son of Mrs. McCutcheon.

Misses Stuckert and daughter, Miss Clarence Stuckert, of Breckenridge, Texas, are here to stay until October.

Mr. Saunders and two nieces, sister and nieces of J. W. McCutcheon, arrived yesterday from Dryden and Houston, Texas, to visit Mrs. J. W. McCutcheon.

A WOMAN'S TRIBUTE TO ADVERTISING.

By W. C. Kennen.

"Do I buy advertised goods?" said an El Paso street woman, "indeed I make it a point to buy them wherever possible."

"My hose are ONYX. I wear NEMO corsets, this wash dress was fashioned from FLAXON and this is a LISSUE handkerchief. I've worn REGAL shoes for years and in season use EVER-STICK rubbers and a GOODYEAR raincoat."

"I alternate QUAKER OATS with CORN flakes, SUNKIST oranges with ATWOOD grape fruit for breakfast, make CHASE & SANBORN coffee in a WEAREVER aluminum pot on a NEW PROCESS range, using gas for fuel. I use ROYAL baking powder. YOURS TRULY canned products and buy BUSTER BROWN bread when we do not make it from GLOBE MILLS flour."

"My dining room table has a TYDEN lock, we sleep on ORSTERMOOR mattresses, our floors are covered by 'HARTFORD SAXONY' rugs and we burn advertised coal in the open fireplaces. Our piano is an IVERS & POND and we also have a VICTOR (talking machine), while our bookcases are Y. & E. sectional."

"On my toilet table I have ELITE powder, and ELITE cold cream; in the bathroom we use IVORY soap, MEN'S NEWS talcum, SANFOL tooth paste, RUDRY towels, and the medicine case is stocked by drugists who advertise in THE HERALD. I am always sure of quality in advertised than in non-advertised goods."

STATE COLLEGE TO ADD A NEW COURSE

Machinery Building Is Sinking and Is in a Bad Condition.

State College, N. M., July 31.—A new course called Comparative Literature will be introduced in the English department this year which promises to be very attractive. It is primarily a third year preparatory study, but is believed by Dr. Garison and Dr. MacArthur, who will have charge of this work, that it will be used by many as an elective, as that they will also be some who will take it up as a special course. The work embraces the development of a crack several inches wide in the front of the building.

Over 300 reference books have been received at the college library, many of them being for the new course to be offered in English. Miss Morton, librarian, who has spent her vacation at La Jolla, Calif., is expected to arrive at the college Sunday.

May Stuckert and Allen Graham have returned to the college after some weeks' absence. Mr. Stuckert at his home in Magdalena, and Mr. Graham in Canon.

Miss Helen Horton and Miss Nan Dougherty will leave for Long Beach, Calif., Friday to spend a couple of weeks.

Reg E. Willard has gone to California, assistant in the biology department, has returned from his vacation in Long Beach, Calif.

H. S. Hammond returned from El Paso accompanied by his wife who has been visiting her parents in Ohio for some months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Linn have returned from Bloomfield, Iowa. Mrs. Linn was formerly Mrs. Green and will resume her duties as stenographer at the college office on August 1.

WILL SPEND A MONTH

Thursday evening a camping party will leave El Paso for Giorletta, N. M., where they will start on a pack trip through the mountains of New Mexico to Taos. They will start from Giorletta and will make the trip by slow stages, fishing and resting on the way with the intention of making the trip in one month of life outdoors.

The party will include T. M. Wingo and son Lowdon, Van C. Wilson, Charles Leavell, J. L. Dyer, Edgar Hainstead, of Los Angeles; U. S. Stewart, Paul Jette, of Mesquero, N. M.; and Stewart M. Scott, of Sherman, Texas.

SUE FOR CATTLE OR DAMAGES OF $200

The Panhandle and Southwestern Stockmen's association wants $200 head of 2 year old heifers, or $2610 as damages, according to the terms of the petition filed by that association Wednesday morning in the first district court against F. L. Pittman and Billy Young. The plaintiffs claim to be the owners of the cattle which it is alleged the defendants have taken, and converted to their own use.

McQuary Held On CHARGE OF PERJURY
Was Arrested Following His Marriage Here Last Friday.

Following a preliminary hearing Tuesday afternoon in Justice E. R. McQuary's court, R. L. McQuary, charged with perjury, was held to await the action of the grand jury on a $500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to the county jail.

The defendant, who is 37 years of age, was married last Friday to May Young, who, it is said, is only 13 years old. In order to secure the marriage license it was alleged that McQuary made an affidavit to the effect that the girl was 18 years of age. The couple was married Friday night, and had secured apartments at the Bassett flats, where their honeymoon was interrupted by the police. McQuary was taken to the city jail and the young bride was turned over to an irate stepfather. Later the prisoner was transferred to the county jail on complaint charging him with perjury, being filed in the justice court.

McQuary is said to be a widower and the father of three children, who are at present in the orphan's home in San Antonio.
